The study of 'sarcodes is one of the most grey area of homeopathic materia medica, which has not yet been thoroughly explored. Most of the sarcodes are not proved as per standard guidelines of Dr Hahnemann nor majority of them been clinically verified. On scrutiny of the available literature on sarcodes, a lot of differences and contradictions are witnessed which lead to confusion in the minds of the readers, particularly in respect to their sources, preparation, clinical applicability, effective potencies and doses etc., There is no clarity whether sarcodes should be earmarked as a separate class of 'animal kingdom'. Moreover the signs and symptoms of each sarcode are not documented uniformly in different homoeopathic Materia Medicas, which naturally confounds the readers. A Brief Materia Medica Derived Primarily From The Works Of Boger With Additions. A Bit More Readable Than Boericke. Summaries Of The Remedies Contains Useful Details. Dr Chauhan has taken a lot of pains and given considerable thinking to produce this book. The book contains pictures to express the symptoms of the disease to enable the homeopath to understand the same. The pictures have been drawn well. If the students see the pictures, they will not miss the symptom of the ailment and in homeopathy the understanding of the ailment and in homeopathy the understanding of symptoms is very important. Any student seeing the pictures in the book will not forget the character of the disease indicated by it and for them this is very essential. Kent's repertory is one of the most acceptable repertories amongst the homoeopathic fraternity. Kent's comparative repertory is a helping hand for the physicians and students alike to overcome the problem of understanding the exact meaning of each rubric and to differentiate amongst the closely related ones such as 'abandon and Forsaken' also the book is a guide for the selection of 'The correct remedy' as it details the differentiating features of each of the third grade remedy under the given rubric. This facilitates the physician at the clinical level. The book well elucidates the most important section of the Kent's repertory which is the Mind section. David S. Riley's interest in the history, methodology and results of homeopathic drug provings began with his exposure to homeopathy in 1988 and his later study at the Hahnemann College of Homeopathy in Albany, California. The homeopathic drug provings published here are the result of his investigation of the research methods associated with homeopathic drug provings and contemporary research methodology. Dr. Riley has developed explicit and transparent research tools for (1) symptom selection criteria, (2) electronic data collection, and (3) blinding to reduce bias. These homeopathic drug provings follow good clinical practice research guidelines (GCP) and incorporate the guidelines suggested by Dr. Samuel Hahnemann more than 200 years ago. The book discusses 200 remedies. Materia Medica in a systematic way which saves a lot of time. The source of each remedy and its provers are listed, along with a brief section of comparative remedies. Information is presented in tabulated form. This book offers an in-depth review of the mineral remedies in conformity with scientific chemistry, and the known effects of remedies both as poisonings and through provings. A book of differential comparisons. The book shows how one might use remedy comparisons in one's daily practice. The remedies are arranged alphabetically. A short repertory which will help in finding the true homeopathic remedy with greater ease and certainty. It is a combination of analytic and synoptic methods. One of the best books to consult in modern homeopathic practice, this one has it all comprehensive and most updated. One of the most popular and frequently referred clinical repertory in modern day practice, it is a must have in any standard homeopathic library. This book represents an extensive sifting and culling of the classical homeopathic materia medicas. Remedy source information has been corrected from the original texts. 1209 remedies are included with more proving symptoms from T F Allen's Encyclopedia to complement the mostly clinical information from Hering; Our lesser known remedies benefit most from Vermeulens work on Concordant Reference. The book reflects recent changes in homeopathic techniques and scientific knowledge. By improving the accuracy of the original material and adding scientific classification, Concordant Reference uses the classical materia medica to build a solid foundation for the modern practice of homeopathy. Family Information on Plants, Animals, Fungi, Bacteria and Viruses. Each remedy is broken down into Generals, Mind, Dreams, Body sections, Modalities, Relations and Causation. Sections on Food and Drink, Heart, Limbs in General, Upper Limbs and Lower Limbs for easier reference. Also, each section of the body is further divided into Sensations, Pain and Objective. Sections on Sensation, Mind and Dream reflect the recent developments in case taking, case analysis and prescribing that have shown to be so effective for today's homeopath. Concordant Reference is a single-volume work of roughly 2,200 pages, beautifully printed and bound to last through years of clinical practice, study and reference. Excerpt from Pocket Manual of Homeopathic Materia Medica: Comprising the Characteristic and Guiding Symptoms of All Remedies. The second edition of this work has been brought up to date, incorporating all homeopathic remedies introduced since the publication of the first edition and such as had been inadvertently left out. It includes many verifications that have been brought to the author's notice by practitioners in many lands, all that have been found recorded in the leading homeopathic journals and works on practice.
